

LOCAL NEWS.

Election day, Tuesday, November 8th.

Hon. J. W. G. Blackstone, engaged of late in filling appointments to speak in Southwest Virginia, returns home to-day.

F. Thomas Olsen, of Norway, fell overboard from City of Columbia off Chincoteague, Friday of last week, and was drowned.

Our merchants and farmers visiting Baltimore, this spring and summer will find the Maltby house, a desirable stopping place.

If you need a transfer or have not registered, attend to the duty to-day or you cannot vote for Cleveland, Stevenson and Jones, on the 8th of November.

Rev. J. W. A. Elliott has been named by the few supporters of the Prohibition ticket in Accomac, as their candidate for Congress, in the first district.

The time of the sale of the storehouse of J. Lee Winder, at Onancock, has been changed, as will be noted by reference to advertisement, to Saturday, November 19th.

Especially attention is invited to the advertisement of F. M. Sturges & Son in this issue. The firm will be dissolved and they are offering bargains in goods. See advertisement for full particulars.

E. H. Benson will visit Drummondton, Monday next, court day, with a full line of samples of Fall and Winter suitings, over-coatings and trousseaus, which will be sold at prices to suit the times.

Next Monday, court day. Come out, pay up all arrears to the EX-TERMINER, get a good dinner, hear the speeches of eloquent speakers to be present on the occasion—and you ought to be, and will be, a happier man.

Very valuable personal property will be disposed of at public auction by Mr. James W. Duncan on his premises near Mappsville, on Thursday, November 10th, as will be seen, by reference to advertisement in this issue.

The returns have been received by Mr. L. James Gunter, Accomac C. H., for potatoes shipped by him to Liver pool, England, recently, and the same were so satisfactory, that another shipment has been made by him to that place.

The body of an unknown white man was washed ashore at the Glebe, near Bridgetown, on the 26th inst. There was nothing on his person to identify him. He was dressed in a suit of oil cloth, and had in his pocket a purse containing $1.12.

Messrs. G. W. Winder & Co., Baltimore, better prepared than ever to serve shippers of oysters and poultry this season, through our columns solicit consignments. With their increased facilities for handling them, they hope to merit the favors of new as well as old shippers.

The Johnstown Jews have again put in an appearance in Accomac, as will be noted by their advertisement in this issue, and are continually receiving carloads of clothing, which they are selling so cheap, that in dealing with them, you are tempted to inquire if they stole them.

The Board of Trustees of Margaret Academy will meet at Keller, on Saturday, October 29th, at 12 o'clock m., at which time the committee appointed to make sale of the Academy will make its report. Should the sale effected by said committee be ratified by the Board, the question of the location of the Academy will then be considered.

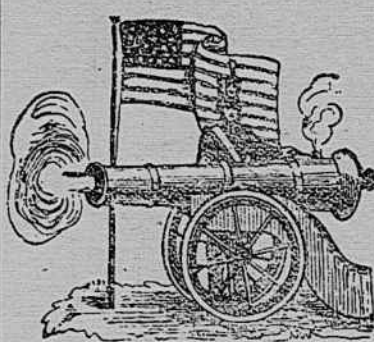

An elegant dinner will be served by the ladies of the Onancock Baptist Church in the new hotel at Drummondton, on next Monday, court day. Everyone who patronizes them will not only get the worth of his money, but help a good cause as well. It matters not how near you live to the Court House, come out and take dinner with them.

The Confederate Memorial Quilt, made by the ladies of the Working Society of the Drummondton Baptist Church, to be voted to the most popular ex-Confederate soldier, will be awarded as soon as the boxes into which the votes were deposited are returned to the drug store at Accomac C. H. The day designated for the returns to be made was next Monday.

A movement is on foot to put a new steamer on the Pocomoke river to ply between Muddy and Messong creeks, Virginia, and this town. The capital stock of the company will be $8,000, and it is hoped that at least one-third of the stock can be secured at the Virginia end of the route. Those who have the movement in hand have met with considerable encouragement at both ends of the proposed new line, and it is thought the project will prove a success.—Ledger, Pocomoke City.

Whiting & Waples have rented warehouse corner of South and Pratt streets, and now carry a larger assortment of goods in their line than any firm in the city of Baltimore. This evidence of prosperity will be very gratifying to all the friends of the firm on the Eastern Shore. The success of our former countryman, the junior member, will be especially pleasing to them. The firm deserves if it does not already receive, the patronage of every Eastern Shoreman wanting the goods they carry.

GRAND Democratic Rally AT— ACCOMAC C. H., NEXT MONDAY.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and Hon. Wm. A. Little, elector for the First District, will address the voters of Accomac on that occasion.

Oyster Roast. A free oyster roast will be given at Mappsville, on the afternoon of 26th, Saturday next.

Addresses by Dr. Geo. W. LeCato, Hon. W. A. Little, Lloyd Smith, Esq., and other prominent Democrats.

The day is breaking, help usher it in. The farmers of the land are about to be redeemed from bondage to the Eastern and Northern party owners. The Democratic party alone on earth has power to save. Be with us and of us.

FOUNTAIN B. HUMPHREYS, Pres't J. W. Daniel Dem. Club. W. A. P. STRANG, Secretary.

Democrats Beware of the Enemy. The Republicans held an all night meeting in their church at Pungoteague, Va., on Thursday night of last week. They are up and doing the quiet and you can bet your money they are organized. Call attention to the fact in your paper and try and urge on the voters the necessity of turning out.

The above letter was received by us this week and we publish it in order to show the necessity of the white people arousing themselves to the danger of the situation. The action of the negroes at Pungoteague is in full accord with the general movement to combine secretly at night meetings. They are holding them all over the two counties. Foreign emissaries with money in their pockets to purchase votes have been sent amongst us. Two of these chaps were in Onancock this week, in close contact with the colored brethren, trying to band them against us under the guise of forming a Lincoln Loan Association.

Political Speaking. The following appointments have been made by the chairmen of the Democratic County Committees of Accomac and Northampton:

Accomac, October 29th, 3 p. m.,—Hon. Thomas M. Scott. Hunting Creek, October 29th, at night,—Benj. T. Gunter, Jr. Chincoteague Island, October 29th, at night,—Prof. F. P. Brent. Mearsville, October 29th, at night,—W. A. P. Strang. Guilford, October 29th, 3 p. m.,—Dr. O. B. Finney.

Accomac C. H., October 31st.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and Hon. Wm. A. Little. Atlantic, November 3rd, at night,—Hon. J. W. G. Blackstone. Greenbackville, November 4th, at night,—Hon. J. W. G. Blackstone. Chincoteague, November 5th, at night,—Hon. J. W. G. Blackstone. Sanford, November 5th, at night,—Prof. F. P. Brent. Modestown, November 5th, at night,—Dr. Geo. W. LeCato and N. B. Westcott.

Northampton, October 29th, 2 p. m.—Hon. W. A. Little. Eastville, November 1st.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee.

C. S. Slocumb & Bros., Onancock, don't only sell fine groceries, but shoes for ladies, misses and men.

Public School Books.

MR. EDITOR:—Although our County Superintendent of schools has called attention to the list of books for our public schools, the houses where they can be found and the prices at which they are to be furnished the pupils, yet I find that in some parts of our county, our merchants don't seem to understand, therefore, I beg a little space to call their attention to the list of books and the houses that furnish them on the best terms, published in your paper a few weeks ago. I also desire to call the attention of the school trustees, that they may see that books are sold at the list prices to the pupils, instead of parents paying from ten to twenty five per cent. too much—our merchants would then make their regular profit because they would buy them at greatly reduced prices and it would save our people hundreds of dollars. Let us all help to get this matter regulated and keep this extra profit among our own people. Any one in need of information, can get it by writing to our County Superintendent.

D. FRANK WHITE.

Unclaimed Letters.

Mail remaining unclaimed in the postoffice at Accomac C. H., Va., October 27th, 1892:

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Chincoteague.

Columbus day appropriately celebrated at our graded school.

Revival services began at Union Baptist Church, Sunday night, conducted by Rev. Mr. Sandford.

The Sanctified band of this place held a meeting at Franklin City, last Sunday. There are several believers in same faith in that locality.

Mr. W. Dayton and family, of Sea Ford, Del., made us a short visit this week, and while here rented a dwelling and millinery shop, which they will occupy shortly.

Messrs. John Goffigon and George Toy, of Cape Charles, made us a short visit a few days ago ostensibly "to inspect the custom house," but really to take in the political situation.

Rev. J. Edmondson has been engaged as pastor of Benlah Baptist Church at a salary of six hundred dollars. The revival recently conducted by him at that church was a very successful one.

A building boom, we have, always. At present it is seen, in a dwelling being built by C. T. Taylor in connection with his store, in an addition being made by E. F. Laws to his dwelling, and in large store in course of erection by Capt. John W. Bunting for F. P. Selby.

Schooner Selbridge arrived here this week from New York with a load of bricks—schooner L. B. Chandler arrived Tuesday with load of merchandise and coal, and schooner P. J. Hart on same day with load of coal—schooner Palestine left for New York this week with a cargo of clams.

A large crowd was at Atlantic hotel on last Saturday, to hear the Democratic orator, which the county chairman promised us, but who failed to show up, and all will be out again next Saturday night to hear Hon. W. A. Little and Prof. F. P. Brent, but if they fail to put in an appearance all of us will be at the polls just the same for Cleveland, Stevenson and Jones.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week: John Reed, C. S. Prettyman, Philadelphia; J. W. Hubbard, F. A. Hubbard, Felton, Del.; L. D. Starte, Jr., Norfolk; W. Dayton, M. Dayton, Sea Ford, Del.; Geo. W. Truitt, Geo. W. McMount, Snow Hill, Md.; E. E. Davis, Laurel, Del.; W. H. Rowley, Geo. Rowley, Hampton, Va.; H. G. Kingsley, J. W. Jones, C. F. Reader, W. P. Hurley, Harrisburg, Pa.; F. C. Hayman, Wilmington, Del.; John Goffigon, Geo. Toy, Cape Charles; H. A. Jarman, Elma Lewis, Accomac.

Belle Haven.

Miss Alice Bailey is visiting friends at Exmore.

Protracted meeting began at Trinity last Sunday night.

Miss G. Y. Anderson and her niece Sarah, are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Harry Mapp, merchant at Wardtown, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Foot ball is the principal amusement among our young men and boys at present.

Columbus Day was celebrated by the school at this place—the exercises were very interesting.

Washstand sets, rattan rockers, easels &c., in abundance at store of The Belle Haven Furniture Company.

Work on the stores of Kellam Bros. at Exmore, rapidly progressing. The hotel of Mr. B. U. Doughty's at same place also is nearing completion.

The fireworks that were to have taken place at night on Columbus Day were postponed until last Monday night, at which time quite a display was sent off.

Messrs. Frank Williamson and Lou Young, of The Imperial Guano Co., Norfolk, who have been in our town in the interest of their firm for the past two months, left for their homes on Saturday.

Miss Sadie Willis died at this place on Friday, 21st inst., of typhoid fever, aged 28 years—and 11 months. Her death, though not unexpected, was a great shock to everyone in this community. No one was held in higher esteem by her friends and neighbors. She was an earnest worker in the church and in that relation will be especially missed.

Mappsville.

E. R. Mason is building a dwelling at Bloxom for Mr. A. W. Short.

N. W. Nock is making preparations to build a dwelling for his own use in this village.

L. T. Phillips, our Squire, has taken up his abode with his family, on Sykes Island.

Mrs. Mary Rayfield has just arrived home from an extended visit to her daughter Bertie in Natchez, Miss.

Edward Oldham has just put the finishing touches upon our pretty little church. It now is one of the ornaments of the village.

There is quite a revival going on at Conquest M. P. Church, near here. Several hardened old sinners and others too have professed faith in Christ.

Rev. Richard Walsh, of Newport News, is here on a visit to his brother. He filled the Baptist pulpit at Modestown, on Monday night, in a very acceptable manner.

Mr. Dunn, of King and Queen county, is the principal of our school here. He seems to be a very pious and nice young man. The scholars are pleased with him greatly.

DIED.

Mrs. John A. Nottingham, who underwent an operation for cancer some weeks ago, died at her residence on Saturday night last of that disease. She was an active and zealous member of the lower Baptist Church, and will be greatly missed by her church and the community in which she lived. She leaves a husband and one child, besides relatives and a host of friends to mourn her loss. We extend our sympathy to the sorrow stricken family.—Headlight.

Mrs. Adeline Evans, wife of Capt. Mitchell Evans, while conversing with some of her neighbors, Sunday, 16th inst., fell back in her chair and expired, aged 70 years. She had been a member of the M. E. Church for fifty years, and had always been an active worker in and consistent member of that church.

Mr. William H. Rayfield, a very respectable and worthy citizen, near Eastville, died on Saturday night last of typhoid fever, after a brief illness.

Mr. Harry C. McConnell, a popular citizen of Onancock, died Friday, 21st inst., of Bright's disease, aged 32 years.

Mrs. Mary E. Rayfield and daughter Maude, have just returned from Baltimore, with a full line of Fall and Winter millinery, and will sell at reasonable prices.

Church Notices.

Beginning with the next appointments, the hour for preaching at Drummondton and Locustville M. E. Churches, South, will be 3 p. m., instead of 3:30 p. m.

Obituary.

Miss Sadie D. Willis, born November 11th, 1863, departed this life October 21st, 1892, after an illness of four or five weeks, was a meek and devoted Christian. Naturally of a cheerful spirit, this was sanctified and made far sweeter and richer and more joyous by willing and glad consecration of her life for six years to the work of the Master, whom she loved and whom she served with a readiness and diligence worthy of those older in the loving service of the Christian's God. Not as often as ought to be, do we find one who had taken so much of the Christ-life into his life. She was a sorrow-stricken earth as one of the great King's chosen cup-bearers—offering to Him the cup of thanksgiving and praise, and receiving from Him the cup of blessing to be pressed to the lips of the sad and weary of the world. Here was the coveted privilege and boon of carrying sunshine and gladness into sorrowing hearts and homes. Her name is like "precious ointment poured forth" from a loving, tender, sympathetic soul. "None knew her but to praise." Her name (now) name her but to praise.

By nature, diffident, retiring, and distrustful of her own ability, she never sought prominence; but the church, the Sabbath school, and the community, seeing in her the marks of usefulness and leadership in all good works, called her into prominent positions, and always felt that, if Miss Sadie's loving nature and masterful hand were engaged in the work, that work would be carried to a grand consummation, and rarely, if ever, did it fail.

She was the friend of the preacher, and no matter what his ability or attainments, if he were an ambassador for Christ, she at once took him to her heart, and was always ready to uphold him for the Master's sake. The preacher's home was often cheered by her presence and other tokens of Christ's regard. And she loved the children—all the children, but especially the young ones of her own church, to whom she devoted her own time on the Sunday school, and they loved her. It was a touching scene to look upon and into the tear-bedecked faces of the members
